

NOVEMBER 2018

NEWSLETTER

President's Report

The goblins and ghouls have disappeared and we welcome November.

This is a month of looking forward.

Looking forward to two classes on the 3rd and 4th, of looking forward to a Retreat and looking forward to a free night at our meeting on the 14th. As well, we have our monthly luncheon and our Bee Day.

Community Project quilts can be brought to the November meeting for delivery to the hospital.

Bee Day was fun. Kathy, the gadget lady, showed us her method of “never pin again” and Sandra D. brought a huge number of quilt tops that were donated to our guild to admire and to sort into various community projects.

Sharon was happy and glowing as each top came out of its box. We'll all hear more later.

Our November meeting will feature free tables. Bring what you no longer need and share with other members. Just remember, if it doesn't go, you take it home again.

Thank you to our new Executive Members, Barb and Katherine, who quickly began contributing to our Guild direction. We hope that the balance of New and Old members on our Board will lead into new and exciting directions. You can look forward to those benefits.

Happy Quilting!!

Carolyn H.

Another Fabric Sale!!!

Sharon Pederson and Elizabeth have both found more stuff they'd like to move to another home so have decided to have another garage sale.

The date is November 17, the time is 11:00 to 2:00, the location is Halbe Hall in Black Creek.

There will NOT be a repeat of the opening time confusion, the doors will open at 11:00 and not before.

Elizabeth will be just back from Houston Quilt Market so will have new and interesting stuff, Sharon will have boxes of fabric that have been tucked away and so now look 'new'.

Ode of Remembrance

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
We will remember them.
